

Precision Transportation The Indiana Rail Road Company Poster

Mitch Markovitz

In honor of its 20th anniversary, The Indiana Rail Road Company commissioned from Mitch Markovitz a painting, from which this poster is taken. A train crosses Tulip Trestle while, below, a hotshot train leaves Indianapolis. The background includes such Indianapolis sites as the city center, Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument, and near the horizon, the smallest, yet possibly most important local landmark: Shapiro's Delicatessen.
